

Examine each of the places shown in the collage of the Southwest. Also look at the map in Section 1 of your Student Edition to see the places where the tour will stop. If you could take a trip to any one place in the Southwest, which one would you most want to visit? Why? Write your answer below.

My Southwest Trip

The image shows a spiral-bound notebook with a dashed line on the left side indicating the binding. The title "My Southwest Trip" is written in a bold, black font in the upper right corner of the page. The rest of the page is blank, intended for a student to write their answer to the prompt above.

Use the spaces below to answer the questions on the Geography Challenge Cards. Write complete sentences. On the map, draw and label the feature that answers each question. Exchange your question with another pair of students until you have completed all the cards.

Question 1.

Question 2.

Question 3.

Question 4.

Question 5.

Question 6.

Question 7.

Question 8.

Question 9.

Question 10.

Your class is taking a big rig tour of the Southwest region. The tour will take you to nine locations. As you move from site to site, draw a line on the map to show your route. After visiting each site, draw a symbol or an image at that location to show what you learned there.

Suppose that you are a newspaper reporter in 1836. You want to write about the Battle of the Alamo that just took place in San Antonio. Answer the questions below. Then use your answers as notes to help you write your article.

Who fought at the Battle of the Alamo?

Why were they fighting?

What details might your readers want to know?