

Can you think of a time when there wasn't enough of something for everyone who wanted some? For example, maybe there were 12 children at a birthday party, but only 10 balloons. Write two or three sentences to tell what happened.

Draw a picture of your face that shows how you felt.

Write one sentence telling why you felt that way.

Read Section 2 in your book. Draw a simple symbol on the map below to show each group of water users. Label each symbol with the name of the group. Then answer the questions below the map.

The Colorado River Basin

Was there enough water for all the groups of water users in the Colorado River Basin at this time? Why or why not?

If groups had to share the water, how did they do so?

Read Section 3 in your book. For each new group of water users, add a simple symbol to the map. Label each symbol with the name of the group. Then answer the questions below the map.

The Colorado River Basin

Was there enough water for all the groups of water users in the Colorado River Basin at this time? Why or why not?

If groups had to share the water, how did they do so?

Read Sections 4 through 6 in your book. For each new group of water users, add a simple symbol to the map. Label each symbol with the name of the group. Then answer the questions below the map.

The Colorado River Basin

Was there enough water for all the groups of water users in the Colorado River Basin at this time? Why or why not?

If groups had to share the water, how did they do so?

Read Sections 7 through 10 in your book. Then copy all the symbols from your last map onto this one. Next, for each new group of water users, add a simple symbol to the map. Label each symbol with the name of the group. Then answer the questions below the map.

The Colorado River Basin

Was there enough water for all the groups of water users in the Colorado River Basin at this time? Why or why not?

If groups had to share the water, how did they do so?

Water is a big part of life for the Havasupai people. It helps shape the way they live, work, and have fun in the Grand Canyon. Suppose that you move to Supai, Arizona. Answer the questions below to identify the ways in which water might affect your life there.

1. How might water affect how I will live in Supai?

2. How might water affect how I will work in Supai?

3. How might water affect how I will have fun in Supai?

4. What do you think will be the biggest advantage to living with the water in Supai?

5. What do you think will be the biggest challenge in living with the water in Supai?

Each year, more and more people will need water from the Colorado River. As a result, it will be a challenge in the future to make sure there is enough water for everyone who needs it.

Design a poster for the Southwest that helps people become more aware of this challenge. Your poster design should include these elements:

- a bold, eye-catching illustration
- one sentence that clearly states the challenge
- one sentence that suggests what people can do to help meet the challenge